2007 Vacancies

There are three vacancies for election to the Bees United Board. Two of the vacancies are created by the need for Stephen Callen and Bruce Powell to stand down in accordance with the Society's rules. In addition Alison Franklin stood down in March this year, with David Merritt filling the vacancy in accordance with society rules up until this annual election. All are eligible to stand for re-election if they so wish. Bruce has indicated that he will not be standing.

Nominations for election to the Board are now requested. If you would like to nominate yourself as a candidate please complete the form overleaf together with a personal profile of not more than 500 words, and return by post or email to the address shown.

Nominations must be received no later than 10 am, Friday 5th October. All members over the age of 18 as at the date of this letter are eligible for election.
